

FRIENDS OF FOSTER CHILDREN FOREVER HIRES NICOLE LUQUE AS ACADEMIC MENTOR COORDINATOR

NAPLES, Fla – (August 2022) Nicole Luque has joined Friends of Foster Children Forever as the new Academic Mentor Coordinator. Nicole will assist in the academic mentoring program for the nonprofit organization, including tutoring over 200 children each year.

After graduating from the University of Southampton (UK), Nicole spent years working with children. Prior to joining Friends of Foster Children Forever, Nicole worked for the Boys & Girls Club, and while in the UK, worked as a support and youth worker, a careers counselor, and a teaching assistant for those with special needs.

Originally from Essex, England, Nicole worked in London for the Cambridge and Bristol Film festivals and the Financial Times in their events departments. Nicole moved to Naples, Fla. in September 2017

Nicole is an avid photographer, which she spent time perfecting while at the University of Southampton. She also enjoys painting and sketching animals, such as her beagle Hazel. In her free time, Nicole loves watching movies, attending concerts and spending quality time with her family. Nicole looks to bring her experience of working with children and event planning to the non-profit organization, solidifying her qualifications to take over the Academic Mentor Coordinator position.
